NEGRO CARVED BY WIFE

Lewis Dickerson in Serious Condition With Five Wounds.

WOMAN GONE WITH ANOTHER MAN

Police Are Making Effort to Locate Pair, But No Trace of Them Has Been Found—Dickerson Makes No Clear Explanation of Affair.

Lewis Dickerson, a negro, was cut five times and dangerously wounded by his wife, Louisa Dickerson, last night about 11:15 o'clock at their home in Union street. The woman and a negro named Thornton, who is said to have been with her at the time of the assault, escaped before Dickerson's cries for help brought neighbors to the scene. The police are making an effort to locate the pair, but at a late hour had discovered no trace of them.

Dickerson has two ugly cuts on his neck, one in his back and two on one of his wrists. Doctors McAllister and Bassette, who dressed his wounds, state that the man's condition is serious, one of the cuts on the neck being especially dangerous.

The negro can give no very lucid account of the assault. He says he was sitting quietly at home when his wife, who had gone across the street a few minutes before, returned with the man named Thornton and attacked him with a knife. Before he realized what was happening, the woman had cut him five times and departed with her companion.

Caught Screech-owl.

A big screech-owl was captured in a room over Johnson's pharmacy early yesterday morning. The owl got into the room through an open window during the night. The captive is now lodging forth in a cage and has attracted a great deal of attention.

Jones-Walton.

Mr. John Dillon Jones, an artilleryman at Fort Monroe, and Miss Lillian Violet Walton, an attractive girl of Phoebus, were married in the home of the bride in Phoebus yesterday afternoon.

Social-Personal

A very pretty, but quiet marriage, took place yesterday afternoon, when Miss Lillian Violet Walton, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Walton, became the bride of Mr. John Dillon Jones, of Madisonville, Ohio. Mr. Marshall J. Cummings attended the groom as best man, and Miss Ella M. Walton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The solemn and impressive ceremony of the Episcopal church was performed by Chaplain Neifert, of the National Soldiers' Home.

The bride wore a becoming dress of crushed rose with hat and gloves to match. The bride is very popular among her host of friends in Hampton and Phoebus.

Messrs. George W. Hope and T. A. Murray returned yesterday from Richmond, where they attended the State fair. Messrs. T. F. Jones, F. W. Moore, Frank Sinclair, Roland Sinclair, Fay Curtis, Magruder Smith, and Fay Sinclair are expected home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenna Davies, of Richmond, are the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mugler, in East Hampton.

Mrs. W. S. Love, of Winchester, who attended the meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Lexington, reached the city last night to visit her daughters, Mrs. J. W. Hope and Mrs. K. W. Hudgins.

Mrs. William L. Brown, of Washington, is visiting friends in Hampton.

Mrs. Jackson, who spent the summer here with her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Marshall in East Hampton, has left for Mexico to visit her daughter, Mrs. Austin.

Mr. C. T. Taylor left last evening for New York, where he will spend several days.

Dr. Thomas C. Cook, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. T. A. Cook in this city. Dr. Cook has decided to locate in Washington and will go to the capital from here.

MR. CHISMAN AND MISS CANNON ARE MARRIED

Popular Young Couple From Hampton and Norfolk Give Their Friends a Pleasant Surprise.

Considerable of a flurry was created around Hampton yesterday morning when it became generally known that Mr. Samuel Rende Chisman, a well known young man of this city, and Miss May Cannon, a popular young woman of Norfolk, had left for Richmond to be married. Mr. Chisman and Miss Cannon met in Newport News by a prearranged program and then took the early Chesapeake and Old Point train for the Capital City.

A telegram received here about 2:30 o'clock from Mr. Chisman stated that he and Miss Cannon had been married. It is said that Miss Cannon's parents were opposed to the marriage of their daughter and for that reason Mr. Chisman and the young lady decided to go quietly to Richmond and have the ceremony performed.

A number of the close personal friends of Mr. Chisman have been aware of his intentions for the past several days, although the news of the wedding came to the general public in the nature of a surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Chisman left Richmond for a wedding journey in the north and are expected to return to Hampton within a few days to take up their permanent residence. Mr. Chisman is the son of Mrs. Mattie K. Chisman and is one of the best known young men around town. He is a time-keeper in the shipyard.

INDICTED DESK AGENTS TO SURRENDER TO POLICE

Charged With Conspiracy to Defraud Richmond, Reilly and Oestull Will Return.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 9.—Eugene H. Reilly and F. H. Oestull, the agents of the American Seating Company, of Chicago, indicted by the grand jury yesterday in connection with an alleged attempt to defraud the city, are in Charlotte, N. C., today.

They have announced their willingness to return to Richmond and surrender themselves next Monday.

Judge Witt, of the Hustings Court, issued bench warrants for the arrest of the two men yesterday afternoon, following the indictments returned by the grand jury.

Clark C. P. Walford, of the city school board, received a telegram this morning, dated at Charlotte and signed by Reilly and Oestull, advising him that the two men had just learned of the indictments returned against them and that they would return to Richmond Monday. They are on a business mission in Charlotte.

The chair company agents will be arrested on the charge of breaking and entering the high school building with intent to commit larceny. The charge is a technical one, the real offense with which they are charged being conspiracy to defraud the city.

Harvest Home Day.

Harvest Home Day will be celebrated this morning by the Sunday school of the Memorial Baptist church at 11:00 a. m. It will be a time when the Sunday school children, and the members of the church and congregation will bring gifts, and the same will be displayed around the pulpit of the church. The next week all of these gifts will be sent to the Baptist Orphanage at Salem for the use of the fatherless and motherless boys and girls there. There will be exercises by the children and an address by the superintendent of the Sunday school on the orphanage, and an appropriate sermon will be delivered by the pastor.

Everybody is invited to attend these services. It will be an enjoyable occasion for all who are interested.
